Born to a Macedonian working-class family who migrated to Australia in the 1970s and raised in the shadow of the Port Kembla Steelworks south of Sydney, Australian storyteller and folk singer SNEZ writes and sings about refuge and displacement, love and resilience, and the enduring pull of Macedonian heritage, shaped by a working-class upbringing in the steel city of Port Kembla. 2026 marks the release of her 6th studio album 'Cardboard Wings'. Snez will be joined by Stewart Peters.
